

Championing the UK's

Real-Life Entrepreneurs™ Awards

the Forton
Group

A specialist leadership development company, who consult, research, coach and train leaders and managers.

What the judges said:

"The Forton Group have an excellent business model that looks at the world as its market place. They have capitalised on their Interlectual Property, and clearly thought about how they can deliver their products to their target audience."

An independent British Sign Language (BSL) interpreting agency, providing communication services for the deaf and hard of hearing.

What the judges said:

"Sign Solutions are a commercial company with ethical values. They have come back from major challenges and are now using new technology as a route to market, which is seeing them go from strength to strength."

ShoeMed

ShoeMed are a shoe shop based in Stratford upon Avon, that offer a foot measuring and personal fitting service for people with wider, problem and hard to fit feet.

What the judges said:

"Shoemed have developed a large customer base in a niche market. As a new company they have seen growth in challenging times, and their expansion plans show just how a unique and customer focused retail businesses can thrive on our high streets."

