

Coaching and Training Services

Professional Leadership Coach - full certification training programme
ICF-accredited (ACTP). A high-intensity programme.

“The Coaching for Leadership offer is very relevant to us.”

“It was the model itself and its application to our business that were the key differentiators, and the fact that the Forton Group has a tool to evaluate the effectiveness of what they do.”

Marc Auckland, Network Rail

Developing Leadership Through Coaching

Leadership coaching supports leaders at every level in the organisation, from leaders at the front line to Board level.

This course provides a rigorous grounding in the core skills, principles and ethics of professional coaching.

The emphasis is on developing leadership, so that coaches are prepared to work with clients from any level of an organisation—from the shop floor to the boardroom.

Course Goals

- Develops and trains motivated and talented employees to become internal coaches.
- Raises the bar for internal coaches by offering them the opportunity to develop coaching skills to a professional standard.
- Empowers coaches by providing them with the tools and practices that will help their coaching be most effective

Benefits for Your Organisation

- Develops your own independent pool of professional internal coaches
- Tailored coach training to your organisation's needs
- Generate cost savings by reducing the reliance on external coaching services
- Significantly enhances the leadership and communication skills of participants
- Support people in building partnerships and growing their teams.

- Ensures that internal coaches are fully aligned with your business objectives to deliver the organisation's vision
- Optimise your leadership capacity and create culture change throughout your organisation
